In the Spirit of Mary

The Woman I Love

The Woman Whom even God dreamed of
Before the world was made;
The Woman Who, though not priest,
Could yet on Calvary's Hill breathe,
"This is my Body; this is my Blood" —
For none save her gave Him human life.
The Woman Who guides my pen,
Which falters so with words
In telling of the Word.
The Woman Who, in a world of Reds,
Shows forth the blue of hope.
Accept these dried grapes of thoughts
From this poor author, who has no wine
And with Cana's magic and thy Son's
Power
Work a miracle and save a soul —
Forgetting not my own.

—Fulton J. Sheen

Dedicated to Two Great Leaders

HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN XXIII

"... That all may be one;
Thou in me and I in Thee."

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY
President of U.S.A.

"... one nation under God indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

"Behold I have given thee to be the light of the Gentiles, that thou mayest be My salvation even to the farthest part of the earth."

Through the Ecumenical Council Pope John XXIII strives to unite all churches for the greater honor and glory of God. The effort should produce concomitant fruits of peace and harmony among nations in these turbulent times.

Inspired by these ideals we have adapted our school year towards this great effort: action towards unity — in faith, truth, spirit, and practice. This 1961 CROWN is dedicated to the two greatest leaders of our time: Pope John XXIII, and President John F. Kennedy who had the courage to sacrifice the leisure he could afford and dedicate himself to the people of his country; to overcome bigotry for the glory of the Church; and to shine as an example to the world of true and sublime principles. GOD BLESS THEM BOTH!

One in Faith

One in Truth

One in Spirit

One in Practice

Faith supplements knowledge gained by a limited intellect. Regina High students are favored by having Church directors in the persons of its Bishops, priests, and spiritual directors, its watchful administration and devoted faculty. Once gained and maintained, it is by faith that poetry, as well as devotion, soars above this dull earth; that imagination breaks through its clouds, breathes a purer air, and lives in a softer light. —Giles

"When it pleased Him . . . to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, immediately I condescended not to flesh and blood."

—Gal. I, 62.

The Diocesan Bishops realize full well the responsibilities and duties charged to them. They can easily say with St. Augustine that the kingdom of heaven asks no other price than one self. It is worth that price as you know very well. Give it and you will gain that Kingdom.

Administrators

Hold Office Reigns

Administrators should be held in the highest honor. They are the allies of legislators; they have agency in the prevention of crime; they aid in regulating the atmosphere, whose incessant action and pressure cause the life-blood to circulate, and to return pure and healthful to the heart of the nation.—Sigourney

They Instruct in the Way of the Lord . . .

When we sacrifice our interests for the service of God, He furthers our affairs more than we should have been able to do, if we had preferred our interests to His service.

—St. Ignatius Loyola.

No sacrifice of ours is greater or more agreeable to God than that of endeavoring to win souls for Him.

—St. Laurence Justinian.

The care of the school is always Charles Simmons concern. Here he relaxes with wife Dorothy at the fountain in the midst of chaperoning duties on Prom night.

Regina owes its outdoor beauty to God's Providence and Mr. Joe Pompeo's tender care. Joe's love of nature is depicted in the arrangement of plants and his careful tending of them.

Convent Echoes

Spirituality is fed by religious services. The spirit of God permeated Regina convent because of services rendered the Sisters by Society of Mary priests.

Leading the procession, Brother Andre Albert, S.M., precedes Rev. Paul Lavoie with the Paschal candle, flanked by Bro. (now Rev.) Robert Langlois, S.M., and Francis Lavin. In the candlelight procession are Sisters Mary Josaphat, Bernadette, Seraphia, Raphael, and Godwin.

The Very Rev. Francis C. Frechette officiates at the reposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday. He is assisted by Rev. Francis Grispino, Bros. Francis Lavin and Thomas Gardiner.

Regina Marial Salve Mater . . . resounds from 40 glorifying voices of Sisters as Sister Mary Bernadette places a crown upon Mary's brow during May. She is attended by Sister Mary Josaphat.

Unity of knowledge may be obtained only through truth. Scholastic effort at Regina High is broad enough to cover a multitude of facts from which others may be deduced. Truth is a queen who has her eternal throne in heaven, and her seat of empire in the heart of God. It is the band of union and the basis of human happiness. Without this virtue there is no reliance upon language, no confidence in friendship, no security in promises and oaths. —Bossuet.

Truth

Religion - Bread of Life

There is a great deal we never think of calling religion that is still fruit unto God, and garnered by him in the harvest. The fruits of the Spirit are love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, patience, goodness. If these fruits are found in any form, being honest and true besides, you bring forth truth unto God.

—Robert Collyer.

Daily Mass — an action leading to the pursuit of all that is high and holy. Its foundation is faith; its action, works; its purpose, holiness; its aim, obedience to God in improvement of self, and benevolence to men.

When the rising sun fell on Memnon's statue, it awakened music in the breast of stone. Religion does the same with nature.

Rev. J. Raymo convinces the girls in his Religion IV class of this while Barbara Ternes reads excerpts from a pamphlet to prove the point. Attentive bystanders are Barbara Ribarsky, Carolyn Pankiewicz, Connie Gray and Dorothy Thursam.

Rev. F. Frechette, S.M., girls' chaplain, distributes the Holy Eucharist to frequent participants.

Religion is love, broad and all-comprising as God's love; it looks to the moral worth of man; it is light and love, and virtue and peace, unadulterated and immaculate. Rev. W. King impresses his Religion III class with the practical aspects of the study.

Class discussion enables Rev. D. Devine to determine the extent of knowledge his teaching has produced. A flip of his index cards, and Father has his next "volunteer" in the Religion III class.

At interviews with Father, girls present their problems. Pat Spoor brings out a hearty chuckle from Rev. W. Petron as she enumerates her ambitions.

English -

Servant

and Master

Language is properly the servant of thought, but not infrequently its master. The conceptions of a feeble writer are greatly modified by his style; a man of vigorous powers makes his style bend to his conceptions; a fact compatible enough with the acknowledgment of Dryden, that a rhyme had often helped him to an idea — W. B. Clulow. The language denotes the man. A coarse or refined character finds its expression naturally in a coarse or refined phraseology — Bovee.

English III has its dramatic moments. Sue Schwenter and Barbara Staszkowski transfer their training from class to the stage in their interpretation of "Overtones" at the Genesian Festival.

This may look like Regina's own private disc-jockey show, but Karen Campanelli, Kitty Kelly, and Sister Catherine Siena are setting up controls for parent night demonstration. Shakespeare also sounds good through private earphones.

Carol Szymanski, Judy Raby, Darlene Zometsky, and Jo Lynn VanDorn agree that demonstrative pronouns can really be demonstrative when it comes to grammar in an English class.

Language - Understanding Others

As we go back in history, language becomes more picturesque, until its infancy, when it is all poetry; or all spiritual facts are represented by natural symbols. The same symbols are found to make the original elements of all languages approach each other in passages of the greatest eloquence and power. — Emerson.

A man who is ignorant of foreign languages is also ignorant of his own language. Language is the armory of the human mind, and at once contains the trophies of its past, and the weapons of future conquests. — Coleridge.

"Salve Maria!" Latin II students enjoy using the telephone. Proving this little known fact, MaryAnn Manko and Mary Rotarius carry on a conversation in Latin while Pat Carra, Pat Konefke, Judy Olivio, Nancy Heymoss, Karen Rousseau, and Maryanne Gayda listen in.

"Parlez-vous Francais?" Mademoiselle Michelene Mroz records a French lecture, while Barbara Staskowski operates the tape recorder. Sylvia Hanna listens attentively to the recording while keeping an eye on the operations of the recorder.

*Mixing the old with the new,
Pam Harvard operates the controls for Janet Olivio while she tapes an amusing story in Latin for the Latin I class.*

Parents are fascinated by the equipment in the electronic laboratory for speech training in languages. Sister Catherine Siena explains to parents of Senior girls how the individual booths aid instruction.

"Si, Si, Senora, my sombrero ess beeg!" Spanish II has its colorful props with Danuta Glodowski in the huge sombrero, while Carole Satawa, Pat Doolittle, Barb Chmura, Maria Orlando, and Pat Lobeck are bedecked in their version of Spanish dress.

Response to Chemical Reactions

"Success produces confidence, confidence relaxes industry, and negligence ruins the work which accuracy had produced!" Chemistry students are aware that over-confidence in performing experiments may prove costly in many ways if negligence creeps in. Concentration must become a habit in the lab.

What will be the result? Phyllis Mueller, carefully diluting a solution, and Karen Diehl, grinding down a solid, demonstrate the lab technique so important to performing Chemistry experiments.

Chemistry trains scientists at Regina! Diligently working on their experiment, Sharon Hertzberg, Sharon Anckaert, Kathy Schmidt, Pearl Bommarito, Sandra Leslie, and Veronica Kaminski gather knowledge for the future.

Accuracy and precision count. In testing the solubility of a substance Judy Slimko uses the centrifuge, while Carol Nowicki has the tedious job of weighing out a small amount of salt. In the background, every girl for herself, are: Phyllis Stemmelen, Kathy Steiner, and Jan Rollins.

Through Science to God!...

"Posture indicates your personality," Rose Acierno points out to the Health class, while Ann Marie Zamon and Diane Tabenske examine the posture chart.

Experimenting with oxygen, Christine Sikora, Diane Hanna, Marsha Holly, and Sharlene Wolfbauer of the General Science class demonstrate their scientific observations to fellow classmates.

O Blessed Health! thou art above all gold and treasure; it is thou who en-largest the soul, and openest all its powers to receive instruction, and to relish virtue. He that has thee has little more to wish for! and he that is so wretched as to want thee wants everything with thee. —Sterne.

"Pass the scalpel please!" 'Major Operations,' such as dissecting a starfish, are only part of the many interesting phases of a Biology student's day in class.

Herman, the hamster, star of Gasarama, is shown by demonstrator to Mary Lou Brooks and Elaine DeBacker who shies away from it.

The Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. presented Gasarama. This display of the usefulness of gas proved to be most educational and informative.

Wonders of Nature

Contained in Gas

Through all God's works there runs a beautiful harmony. The remotest truth in his universe is linked to that which lies nearest the throne.

—Chapin.

Betty Kmiec, Helen Bisson, and Mary Lou Brooks feed Herman, the Hamster, as assistant, Pauline Tistle, looks on.

"Gas comes from far below the surface of the earth," says Dave Fyffe. Standing wide-eyed, Mary Lou Brooks, Betty Kmiec, Sister M. Rosabelle, and Helen Bisson listen in amazement.

Sue Mach and Sister M. Bernadette enjoy watching the antics of Roby the Robot. Roby is operated by natural gas and is demonstrated by Bob Bronsky, a representative of the gas company.

Kathy Schmidt views the marvels of gas.

"Gasarama," presented annually by the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company to Regina, proved to be very intriguing. Everything from robots to rockets can be run on gas as is demonstrated to Helen Bisson, Betty Kmiec, Mary Lou Brooks, Kathy Schmidt, and Elaine DeBacker.

A round of applause followed the finish of the "Gasarama" program. Sincere thanks go to the Gas Company and an invitation to revisit Regina again next year.

One World--United in Thought and Culture

History is a sacred kind of writing, because truth is essential to it, and where truth is, there God himself is, so far as truth is concerned.

The student is to read history actively and not passively; to esteem his own life the test, and books the commentary. Thus compelled, the muse of history will utter oracles as never to those who do not respect themselves. — Emerson.

Old World Russia is the topic of discussion in this Modern History class. Ann Nardone shows the similarity of a passage in her book to a point on the map while her assistant Barb Belloli agrees and their contemporaries Pat Konefke, Nancy Heymoss, Bev Clark, and Mary Hummer look on.

Portraying people in varied walks of life, Doris Bonne, Kathy Schmidt, Mary Ann Wyllie, Virginia Wallace, and Jean Iafrate show the different phases of reasoning by means of a humorous skit during an educational assembly. Barb Chmura and Fran Libiszewski tune in to find out what's going on.

The scales of justice are balanced in an American history class during the portrayal of a Michigan court scene. 'Judge', Jackie Wroblewski waits attentively as Irene Mollicone, 'Notary Public', swears in Judy Groth as a 'witness', while 'lawyer', Rose Acierno, confers with Mary Ann Hines, the second 'witness'. Kathy Lualdi acts as 'court recorder'.

Discussing local and national economics, Kitty Kelly, Carol Henn, and Bev Green formulate current data while Barb Lenzion, Vernie Kaminski, and Mary Weigand express their views on world events.

Sister Mary Danuta gives final tips to panelists who appeared on "Quiz 'Em", a current events TV program. Ann Marie Zamon, Rose Acierno, Carol Campanelli, and Veronica Kaminski's research and efforts proved victorious when they triumphed over Ypsilanti High School to bring home honor and a television set to Regina.

Learning is the dictionary, but mathematics is the grammar of science. Eventually, all becomes clear. Depth beyond Depth is revealed suddenly — the Byss and the Abyss. You will see — as one might see the transit of Venus or the nearness of Mars — a quantity passing through infinity and changing its sign from plus to minus.

—Emerson.

Need more explanation of the mystery of "x" and "y"? Algebra I students Paula Grauzer, Louse Stempnik, Jackie Raven, and Mary Ann Pulice listen as Judith Rosinski explains and solves the mystery.

Three heads are better than one in deciphering the mysteries associated with the study of Parabolas. Cynthia Walters, Sue Schwenter, and Kathy Slivik concentrate on the solving of such a problem in their Advanced Algebra class.

"Circles may have angles." This is just what Geometry students Barbara Fryling, Joanne Levigne, Diane Bellack, and Judy Noe have found, and also the whys and hows about them.

Charts and graphs give visual representation of many facts as pointed out by Sue Ruessman. Peggy Santoni, Georgina Fileccia, Darlene Zometsky, Ruth Emmendorfer, Nancy Pawczuk, Lois Carnaghie, Cheryl Baryliski, and Jo Lynn Van Dorn compare their charts with the examples given in the book.

LIBRARY

What's new? Many interesting and informative books help Reginites answer this question. Christine Zajac, Lilliane Rogalla peruse the new additions while Gay Nickowski's book attracts Susan Peters.

Books are Treasures; Found when Sought

What laborious days, what watchings by the mid-night lamp, what rackings of the brain, what hopes and fears, what long lives of laborious study, are here sublimized into print, and condensed into the narrow compass of these surrounding shelves!

—Horace Smith.

How does it look?

Kay Nowaski and Nancy Fasanga check to see if the returned books are in good condition.

Books, books, and more books! Library aides, Cathy Maier, Frances Lucchese, and Deana Iaconelli must overcome the temptation to read them as they help to replace the day's returns.

Alert and ready are these Typing II students as they demonstrate the correct procedure of paper insertion. From the left they are: Bev Green, Betty Roeder, Barbara Darga, Connie Bacca, Diane Cali, and Jeannette Tumberella.

Efficiency Experts at Work

Patience is only one faculty; earnestness the devotion of all the faculties. Earnestness is the cause of patience; it gives endurance, overcomes pain, strengthens weakness, braves dangers, sustains hope, makes light of difficulties, and lessens the sense of weariness in overcoming them.—Bovee.

Transferring entries from ledgers and columnar journals to work sheets is quite an assignment for Bookkeeping students: Mary Ann Albrecht, Carrie Yokum, Darleen Stefani, and Shirley Vasquez. They are really trying to balance their books.

Freshman Barbara Battani receives a favorable reaction to her response from General Business students and Mr. McDonald, instructor.

To share the vital procedures of clerical work in a business office, Anna Marocco manipulates the mimeograph machine; Sharon Tomlinson types a report; Charlene Nowakowski alphabetizes her index cards, while Joan DiGiuseppi files away the completed transactions.

Art

Beauty

Creativity -

Talent is found in abundance in this family. Carol Campanelli admires the sketch of her baby brother which is being done by her artist sister, Karen.

The magic of art . . .

Art brings us nearer to the Infinite, one of the forms of which it manifests to us. God is the source of all beauty, as of all truth, of all religion, of all morality. The most exalted object of art, therefore, is to reveal in its own manner the sentiment of the Infinite.—Victor Cousin.

Christmas cards designed by Barbara Darga, Carol May, Kathy Templin, Cheryl Szydle, and Betty Roeder are now in the manufacturing process. The girls also learn to block print and silk screen.

Judges carefully examine sketches entered into competition at the art exhibit.

Exclamations of awe are heard as art lovers view the masterpieces created by Reginites. These and other pictures are exhibited at Regina's annual Art and Science Fair.

dewdrops, like jewels upon a flower

Creative ingenuity brings about many different center pieces. Cheryl Szydle, Marilyn Campbell, Sandra Desgrandchamp, and Maryann Belloli comment on one another's arrangements.

Sitting down to a table laden with food of their own cooking is the best incentive for good planning, careful preparation, and proper serving techniques for Foods class members, Sue Pantera, Kathy McKeown, Sharon Steffen, Kathy O'Connor, and Jan Rollins.

Manners Beget Poise

"We thank Thee, Father, for Thy gifts . . . " We thank our Heavenly Father for every manifestation of His Providence over us . . . we thank Him for all the experiences which make His gifts pleasurable to us while they satisfy our needs . . . we thank Him, for they help us to appreciate all things, and to enfold the whole world with a blessing.

Mm-mm-mm! Smell those cookies. The halls of Regina fill with delightful aromas of baking as Lynn Stanbridge removes her festive holiday cookies. Co-worker in this rewarding chore, Mary McDonnell, looks down with pride at their accomplishment.

Food is Vitality

The joy of being able to prepare her own food is very rewarding to any girl. Regina girls learn proper manners, arrangement, table setting and many other graces which make any meal a pleasure.

Entertainment is an important subject in Foods Class. A buffet is put on by members of the class and then enjoyed by everyone, especially Sharon Steffen, Kathy O'Connor, Marilynn Spanske, Pat Painter, and Judy Emmendorfer.

Assistant hostesses, Kathy McKeown and Sharon Anckaert, show Drema Whitt the shamrock cake prepared by other girls in the class while hostess, Mary Posch, looks on. The girls designed the buffet setting which was a St. Patrick's day motif.

Back for a second helping is Kathy O'Connor but Jan Rollins and Pat Blachut eye the hors d'oeuvres for the first time. Joan Marlow, Pat Gosinski, Louise Lebnek, and Lorraine Kanas are well on their way in taking their choice for both a nutritious and delicious meal.

The annual fashion show was truly a gala event with a swish and swirl of many colorful dresses. Sharon Meakin, Diane Krupa, Peggy Krajniak, Connie Czarnecki, Bev Bove, and Joan Marecki gather flowers to be carried as supplements to their dressy dresses.

Appearance

Determines Opinion

A neat appearance and propriety in dress radiates a wholesome atmosphere in company and are reflected in appreciative companionship. Proper appearance also adds to the acquisition of poise and grace in bearing.

Prizes are given not only for the beauty of the creation but also for the perfection of the work. Rewarded for their tireless patience and exactness are Diane Kahoun, Jane Reed, Diane Santavicca, Mary Saxton, and Mary Jo Vloet.

Stepping into the world of fashion is Jane Reed, one of Regina's many talented models. Wearing her own creation, Jane shows a pace-setter for the spring of '61.

What the Best Dressed Girl Wears

Pins and needles . . . needles and pins! Another busy day drives tedium away in the clothing class. While Sharon Gardner, Christine Bojanczyk, Margie McKay, and Kathy Howell lay out their patterns, other students are adding the final touches to their new fashions. Joan Koch presses out her seams.

Regina's modern facilities and equipment provides ample room and opportunity for these industrious seamstresses: Marilyn Satawa, Marilyn Savage, Mary Jo Vloet, Mary Kay Adamo, Alice Ruth, and Kathie Ricker. Carefully stitching their pieces of material together at the sewing machines are Ann Thornton, Sue Kuneth, Pat McKinley, Jane Reed, and Diane Santavicca.

Proper Dress

Enhances Personality

So great is the effect of neatness upon man, that it extends even to his moral character. Virtue never dwelt long with vice; nor do I believe there ever was a person scrupulously attentive to cleanliness who was a consummate villain. Beauty commonly produces love, but neatness preserves it. Age itself is not unamiable while it is preserved clean and unsullied; it is with pleasure we can look upon cleanliness. —Addison.

Dressing dolls is fun for all ages. Betty Powers, Diane Halinski, Sue Muylaert, and Arlene Paszek exchange admiring glances as they dress the dolls for charity.

Creative talent is displayed by the unique novelties brought to Regina by Mrs. Jacqueline Hale. Pat Clements, Diane Kahoun, and Diane Cali are inspecting the colorful creations.

It is for unity in spirit that Regina High encourages activities, organizations, and sports, — to bring out virtue, real and tried. The height and value of true virtue consists in the facility, utility, and pleasure of its exercise; so far from difficulty, that girls, as well as women, and the innocent as well as the subtle, may make it their own; and it is by order and good conduct, and not by force, that it is to be acquired.—Montaigne.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Larry Egan, the Regina band has a good start: Row 1: Gayle Patryjak, Carol Szymanski, Pat Carra, Karen Rousseau, Gail Strausbaugh, Sandra Ippolito; Row 2: Mary Janchar, Mary Ann VanderHoeven, Mary Fran Cornelissen, Cathy McGovern, Bev Bove, Madeline Paskiewicz; Row 3: Sylvia Donahue, Judy Raby, Rosemary Accetta, Kathy Fox; Row 4: Alice Lang, Pat Goddeeris, Donna Mihelich.

Music has charms to soothe the savage breast, to soften rocks, and bend the knotted oak.—Congreve.
Music is the mediator between the spiritual and the sensual life. Although the spirit be not master of that which it creates through music, yet it is blessed in this creation, which, like every creation of art, is mightier than the artist.—Beethoven.

The talent of Larry Egan in band direction is further exemplified in his Alumni Band and Dance bands which perform at Regina dances. Here Mr. Egan joins the trumpets.

Students Govern

I will tell you where there is power; where the dew lies upon the hills, and the rain has moistened the roots of the various plants; where the sunshine pours steadily; where the brook runs babbling along, there is a beneficent power.

—Chapin.

Girls chosen for the Student Council are known for their devotion to the school to make Regina a highly reputable institution of learning

Student Council president, Mary Posch, presides over the freshmen's first big event, their induction. After taking the pledge, the freshmen were given a warm welcome into the Regina Student Body.

"Salve, salve, salve Regina . . ."

Marked A Reginite

Few footprints of the great remain in the sand before the ever-flowing tide. Yet Regina trains her students to be truly great. First they consider how they may gain the approbation of God, and, secondly, that of their own consciences; having done this, they would then willingly conciliate the good opinion of their fellow students.

A new member joins Regina's family as Student Council treasurer, Joan Lazarow, pins the emblem on Ann Roberts.

"The distinguishing mark of a Regina student is the emblem worn proudly on her blue and white blazer," says Jean Iafrate. Jean, Student Council secretary, reminds the girls of the honor and responsibility of wearing a Regina uniform.

Freshmen receive the rosary of their Queen! Sister M. Bernadette assisted by Student Council officers, Jean Iafrate and Mary Posch, presents a rosary, symbolizing the induction ceremony, to Donna Mayer while Cathy Lambertz, Maureen Kramer, Judy Blocker, Donna Goike, and Kathy Szachta anxiously await their tokens.

"We the class of 1964 . . ."
Front row: Rosemary Krapp, Roselyn Shermaturo, Elizabeth Kotlarz, Elaine Faba, Pat Gorecki, Arlene Jed; Row 2: Janice Baranowski, Judy Ogden, Christine Wywrot, Sandra Larimer, Nanette Buckley, Kathy Nuspel; Row 3: Judy Blocker, Eileen Beattie, Darlene Zometsky, Nancy Porolniczak, Marlene Kulas, Judy Rumps, and Carolyn Nowicki. The girls take their pledge of loyalty to Regina . . . their school, their Queen and Mother.

*"Well, how did you like it?"
Mrs. Pileri asks Mrs. Galasso's opinion of the parent night. Parents found their time was well spent this evening.*

*Art includes an intellectual side!
Parents observe the art notes of their daughters. Sister M. Joanne points out an exceptionally well-done book.*

*Fatherly interest! Mr. Grismer takes an interest in Biology, thereby taking an interest in his daughter.
Sister M. Emmeline explains an interesting biological fact.*

*Balance sheets, work sheets, and other business forms are the topic of the senior Bookkeeping class. Sister M.
Estelle briefs the parents on some of the bookkeeping procedures.*

"This is the way!" The proper method of throwing a carriage is demonstrated by Sister Cecilia Ann to parents of the typing students.

"Economics is the science of the production and distribution of goods and services." Sister Mary Danuta informs the "one-night students" of the value and importance of a clear and thorough knowledge of economics in all walks of life.

It hits the spot! Refreshments were gladly accepted by the parents after a day (or night) of classes at Regina. Senior parents followed the schedule and received the report cards of their daughters.

Careers Ahead

In the inset, Mr. Ed. Hoban, graduate of Maryknoll Seminary, who received his masters at the University of Detroit, listens attentively to the panel discussion. Chairman, Rosemary VanSteebandt, from Sienna Heights College introduces the panel members. The importance of attending a Catholic college and points concerning college requirements are discussed by Anne Schierlok, Nazareth College; Pat O'Connor, Notre Dame University; and Mary Hoban, Marygrove College.

Pamphlets, college bulletins, and first hand information are being given by various college and university representatives from throughout Michigan. Seated, Rosemary Dorr, Sienna Heights College; Phyllis Burkart, Nazareth College; Shirley Prusinski, Madonna College; Frank T. Cairus, University of Detroit; and Helen Moranty, St. Mary of the Springs College, answer many questions concerning their colleges.

A city-wide audience of students planning a college career, and their parents, attended the evening's lecture on college preparations.

Applying to a college is one of the major steps in the life of a college bound high school student. Mary Jo McCormack and Sue Solosky inquire about the various types of questionnaires and college entrance forms.

Pat Doolittle and Maria DeStefano search through a maze of bulletins and pamphlets for the college of their choice. There is such a variety of colleges and universities that a high school senior spends much of her time deliberating her choice.

College requirements are discussed by Diane Bellack and Karen Beckley with representatives from various colleges. Frances Bianco and Janet Sommers interest themselves in the newest qualifications necessary for entrance to a college.

The Easter Bunny tops the laden baskets of groceries prepared by Connie Mazza, Pat Konefke, Joan Marecki, and Ann Nardone, as their student council homeroom project.

Accepting flags for each homeroom from Harper Woods unit of American Legion are: K. Riker, S. Oberman, Y. Nowicki, C. Albrecht, K. Henze, K. Moore, J. Hartner, P. Mach, and M. Spanske.

Beverly Hodakoski, and Pat Hall check attendance records during their hall guard duty, a service of the student council.

Student Council Officers filling Thanksgiving baskets for the poor are: Kay Nowaske, Vice-president; Jean Iafrate, Secretary; Joan Lazarow, Treasurer, and Mary Posch, President.

Conducting the Student Council Meeting are officers: K. Nowaske, J. Lazarow, J. Iafrate, and M. Posch. Members seen here are: K. Williams, M. Feldmann, K. Kelly, M. Laquerre, M. A. Kucab, C. Henn, C. Nowicki, B. Staskowski, S. Miller, C. Campanelli, C. Bruisee, P. Stemmellen, M. Clavenna, K. Diehl, J. Howell, M. A. Nuzback, K. Campanelli, and L. Salvatore.

Students Govern

The Student Council promotes good school relationships by encouraging habits of leadership, service, scholarship, and character among the students of Regina High.

Proudly reviewing their daughter's winning science project, Shirley Schippert's parents are given first hand information by Shirley herself. Her exhibit won prizes at Regina and at the Detroit Metropolitan Science Fair.

Louise Chlebnik, Diane Dandy, Pat Mach, and Shirley Schippert were all prize winners for their exhibits at the Detroit Metropolitan Science Fair. Louise and Diane examine the certificates received while Pat studies the bone formation of chicken embryos for which Shirley received the plaque which she holds. She was one of the top 10 winners at the fair.

Scientists at Regina unite hard work and many hours into producing the annual science fair, but as the girls exclaimed:
"It was worth every minute of it."

Science Fair Evokes Hidden Talents

The strength of all sciences, which consists in their harmony, each supporting the other, is as the strength of a fagot in the hand; for were it not better for a man in a dim room to set up one great light than to go about with a small watch-candle into every corner? Sciences flourish best in the neighborhood of each other.—Bacon.

Regina Science Fair exhibits General Science, Biology, and Chemistry.

Mary Clare Limbert and Pat Doolittle gather much scientific knowledge as they examine the varied projects at the Regina Science Fair. This is Pat's winning project on acid tests.

◀ A wealth of educational surprises was received by all who attended the second annual science fair at Regina. Parents, teachers and girls were amazed at the many promising Madame Curies exhibiting their scientific talents.

Libraries

Are Treasuries

Books have values and various purposes. Histories make men wise; poets, witty; the mathematics, subtle; natural philosophy, deep; moral, grave; logic and rhetoric, able to contend.

Theo Mace, Sue Rossi and others are attracted by the selection of Catholic books during book week.

Librarian, Sister Mary Noel, explains circulation procedure of special books to library aides: Cynthia Skierkowski and Sophie Cieslak.

D. Kurkierewicz, P. Meloche, B. Desteiger, M. A. DeGregario, K. Schmidt, A. Poma, D. Dandy, D. Kahoun, M. McKay swarm to the tables for first choice of select books during Catholic book week.

Honoring the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the student body attends Mass and receives the Holy Eucharist each First Friday of the month with the Very Rev. F. Frechette, S.M., officiating.

Dedication--in the Life of a Chaplain

Every duty brings its peculiar delight, every denial its appropriate compensation, every thought its recompense, every love its elysium, every cross its crown; reward goes with performance. Generosity greatens; virtue exalts, charity transfigures; and holiness is the essence of angelhood.

—Mildmay.

cap and gown for First Friday.*

Underclassmen receive Our Lord from the Chaplain.

Evening ceremonies also require the Very Rev. F. Frechette's services. He blesses the Senior rings with a solemn prayer.

Beverly Auberlin receives her ring from Father Frechette.

The Blessed Mother hovers over each ceremony.

The blessing after daily Mass invigorates the girls for their school duties.

The Sisters are not forgotten during Holy Week services as numerous Society of Mary priests and brothers assist Father Frechette in the Holy Thursday liturgy.

Solitude and Prayer

Our prayer and God's mercy are like two buckets in a well; while the one ascends, the other descends.

—Bishop Hopkins.

Knowing this, Regina wants to educate her daughters spiritually as well as scholastically, physically and socially. A retreat provides Reginites with a wonderful opportunity to improve their spiritual life.

Revs. Jerome and Roy relax and discuss their work, hoping to help each other improve the retreat.

To perfect their spiritual retreat, these girls prepare themselves for confession while awaiting their turn.

Thankful for all their blessings, especially during the retreat, these students express their gratitude with a silent prayer after Holy Communion.

A Perspective on Life--

Prayer has a right to the word, "ineffable." It is an hour of outpourings which words cannot express — of that interior speech which we do not articulate, even when we employ it.—Madame Swetchine.

Retreat master, Father Roy, begins each conference with a prayer to the Blessed Virgin.

"May God's blessing be with you." An abundance of graces and blessings are earned by each Reginite at this year's spiritual retreat.

Information of Christ's life and teachings is gained through reading and prayerful meditation as is being done by Janet Sommers, Joan Gornick, and Joanne Licatovich.

The Bread of Life is received into the hearts and souls of the entire student body during retreat Masses. Father Roy, O.F.M., distributes the Holy Eucharist.

The Very Rev. F. Frechette, S.M., extends a blessing over the Freshmen and their parents during the Mass which preceded the Freshmen Breakfast.

The congregation gives its undivided attention to Fr. Frechette, speaker during Sunday Mass at Regina.

Spiritual and Cultural Life Interests Parents

Participating in their daughter's activities at the school, whether spiritual, social, or cultural, parents display an active interest in the full development of their child's life. This interest is reflected in the student's wholesome attitude towards school.

Students and parents enjoy a hearty breakfast as well as a chance to acquaint themselves with new friends.

The parents of the Seniors begin their Sunday at Regina with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

With Charity For All Missions

Beneficence is a duty. He who frequently practices it, and sees his benevolent intentions realized, at length comes really to love him to whom he has done good.
—Kant.

Msgr. Jobs, diocesan director of missions, bestows the Palladin Mission award upon Linda Blum. Marlene Oestman assists in distribution of certificates.

A word of encouragement and appreciation goes to Barbara Caloia for her share of work to the missions as Msgr. Jobs hands her the certificate of recognition.

Sandra Majewski displays the Papal Flag as the Regina Mission Unit, a Papal organization, busily makes bandages for the leprosarium. Marlene Oestman, secretary, reads the instructions while Celine Jasinski cuts sheets; Sharon Holliday tears them in strips, and Joyce Hertzberg rolls them into bandages. Mary Ann Kucab, CSMC president, examines a roll before it is packed by Mary Lou Krzyminski.

Sister Mary Dulcia, seated, of Marymount Convent, Cleveland, explains the vocation exhibit of the teaching Sisters at Regina to Beverly White. Carol Brusiee and Veronica Kaminski study the pamphlets. Assisting in the lectures were Sister Laboure, professed, Sister Georgette, novice, aspirant, and Madeline, postulant.

The Call To Serve--Irresistable Sound

The highest excellence is seldom attained in more than one vocation. The roads leading to distinction in separate pursuits diverge, and the nearer we approach the one, the farther we recede from the other.
—Bovee.

Gayle Janicke and Shirley Vasquez interview Sr. Jogues, evening instructor of Religion at Regina who discloses to them how she approaches the problem of vocations.

Washington -

A welcome sight! Destination reached safely and happily, Seniors view the Capital buildings with mixed feelings of joy and patriotism.

Reginities visit the Supreme Court Building. While visiting this historical spot, the girls learn the functions of justice and the true value of their freedom.

Carol Henn will fall asleep if the bus doesn't start loading. Ann Eisbrenner and Jackie Wroblewski try to keep her awake. Not so, Cindy Grzesik, Judy Groth, and Marie Saracino, who have plenty to discuss . . . as usual.

"Take the bus and leave the driving to us . . . " the slogan of four brave men! Fulfilling the wishes of Regina's camera bugs, the bus drivers, Samuel Genturg, Knowlton Burger, Robert Stouffer, and George Hetzer, pose with Judy Slimko for this memorable snapshot.

Home of All That's Dear to Me

I know that there is one God in heaven, the Father of all humanity, and heaven is therefore one. I know that there is one sun in the sky, which gives light to all the world. As there is unity in God, and unity in the light, so is there unity in the principles of freedom. Wherever it is broken, wherever a shadow is cast upon the sunny rays of the sun of liberty, there is always danger to free principles everywhere in the world.—Kossuth.

Union does everything when it is perfect; it satisfies desires, it simplifies needs, it foresees the wishes of the imagination; it is an aisle always open, and becomes a constant fortune.—DeSenancour.

"Nice, nice dinosaur, or whatever you are . . ."

Judy Slimko is quite brave and would choose this willing animal for a pet, especially because it is stuffed.

"Rise and shine!" Seniors, Nancy Smith, Danuta Glodowski, Maria Orlando, Charlene Grismer, Sharon Gavrich, and Evelyn Jesky, prepare for another busy day of touring our nation's Capital by fortifying themselves with a hearty hotel breakfast. Seven in the morning doesn't seem too early when they have so much to see.

"It's only a wax figure, girls!" Sue Babich and Carolyn Spies don't mind and are trying to make out with this handsome gentleman. Pearl Bommarito gets a little over friendly with Ben Franklin, while Judy Mangold leaves her scrawled autograph at the Wax Museum.

Operetta:

Gypsy Troubadour

A light romantic operetta, The Gypsy Troubadour, uses the singing and acting talent of Regina and Notre Dame High Schools.

For awhile Nikoli (Michael Genette) is enamored with a college co-ed, Miss Clare (Kitty Kelly).

Starring in the lead roles, Michael Genette, as Nikoli, serenades Lynn Beaupre, as Rosita, in cast 1.

A chorus of gypsies joins Nikoli (Michael Genette) as he sings to Kathy Kretch as Janina, and Vicki Andrews as Rosita in cast 2.

*"Sit down, Mr. Clayton. I'm not finished."
Marko (Bill VanDeweghe) seats
Michael McCarroll to resume the fortune he's telling, much to the horror of the chorus and Mary (Kathy Lazarecki), Jean (Phyllis Stemmellen, seated on
seated at campfire).*

*In cast 2 of the same scene,
Beverly Auberlin as Jean and Mary Limbert as Mary are aghast at the fortune being told.*

Bill VanDeweghe (Marko) rehearses between cokes with Kathy Kretch and Danuta Glodowski, both casting as Janina.

Mary C. Limbert, Doug McClure, a good production.

Senior Play:

"Murder in the Nunnery"

A mystery comedy in three acts "Murder in the Nunnery" held the audience in suspense to solve the mystery. Regina girls and Notre Dame boys participated in the cast.

Danuta Glodowski, as Inez Escapado, demonstrates the use of a knife to Inspector Pearson, James Harger, and Reverend Mother, Karen Lumetta.

Dennis Majkowski as Mr. Turtle does some "unearthing" in the garden.

Sergeant Mulligan, Michael Krajniak, and Inspector Pearson, James Harger, are not a bit impressed by Mother Trevor's, Judy Kay Baron's, tale.

Janice VanDenBerghe as Venetia Geza does some detective work of her own, much to the amazement of Baron Sliema, Don Aillo, and Mrs. Moss, Maria Orlando.

In the chapel scene, Rose Acierno, Judy Kaye Baron, and Bernadine Russ as nuns, and Jan Rollins and Mary McDonald attend the services conducted by Chaplain, Dennis Majkowski and his server, J. Blachut.

Karen Lumetta is presented with a silver medal for outstanding acting in the Genesian Festival.

Danuta Glodowski as Inez threatens her roommate, Emily Casper as Prudence behind the sergeant's back, Michael Krajniak.

Around the Campus

The morning of life is like the dawn of day, full of purity, of imagery, and harmony. It is with youth as with plants; from the first fruits they bear we learn what may be expected in future.

—Demophilus.

All beauty sights of the school are dear to the school and they feel privileged to care for them. Diane Tabenske has assumed the responsibility of keeping a light burning at the Lourde fountain; Rosemary Nako is her faithful helper.

Admiring Star of the Detroit Red Wings, Gordie Howe's uniform, Christine Sikora, Veronica Kaminski and Margaret Kaminski get first hand information on hockey from Jack Adams, manager.

Whatever is dear to the girls is also the concern of their teachers who remember them in prayers especially for special occasions, as here at the Repository.

School Paper:

Sceptre News Rolls

In writing a newspaper, it is as with thoughts. He who thinks much says but little in proportion to his thoughts. He selects that language which will convey his ideas in the most explicit and direct manner. A pure style in writing results from the rejection of everything superfluous.
—Washington Irving.

News, news, and more news is the ever resounding ring of these ambitious SCEPTRE reporters. Carolyn Caretti happily announces the completion of her story while other reporters, Jane Reed, Pierrette Laquerre, Judy Roche, Judy Olivio, and Linda Tacconelli receive their assignments.

Clicking typewriters, anxious voices, and scratchy pens add to the humdrum of busy activity in the SCEPTRE room. Marge Kaminski, Pat Mach, JoAnn Ladensack, Sue Tobbe, Mary Ann Martin, Barb Staskowski, and Kathy Templin try diligently to complete their work for the next edition of the SCEPTRE.

Writing With Purpose

Fine writing consists of sentiments which are natural, without being obvious. There cannot be a juster and more concise definition of fine writing. —Hume.

Distractions are forever present as the circulation members of the SCEPTRE prepare newspapers for mailing. Barbara Fryling, Lucille Gangl, Maria Vallad, Lorraine Busch, and Beverly Clark find it almost impossible to refrain from reading through the articles of the recent edition.

Check and re-check is the first step to perfection. Page editors, Holly McKittrick, Judy Caloia, Mary Weigand, and Kathy Steiner, carefully go over the lay-outs of each page of a future edition of the paper.

As the SCEPTRE editor, Veronica Kaminski, looks through the latest edition of the paper, she gives an approving glance at the result of many hours of hard work by herself and members of the staff.

Most recent and interesting sports news goes into the SCEPTRE. Sports reporter, Connie Mazza, efficiently dictates the facts as Mary Hummer quickly copies down each word.

Yearbook Rally:

A Book to Immortalize Memories

Memories of four poignant years are captured in a book to raise the spirits, and inspire with noble and courageous feeling when the duties of life become absorbing and dejecting. A rally spurs the girls on to work for this expensive but worthwhile project.

Micheline Laquerre, editor-in-chief, addresses the student body.

Editors Barbara Ternes, Claudia Berari, Karen Campanelli, Ann Marie Zamon, Charlene Grismer, and Micheline Laquerre cheerfully undertake their task by asking the Queen's help for the new CROWN.

The staff seeks professional help at the workshop held at Notre Dame High. Mack and Lorraine Suprunowicz address the group. Regina girls are at far right.

The spirit is great and goals were high to produce a fine yearbook.

Crowned cheerleaders join willing hands to ease the great job. They are: Standing: Saranne Oberman, Rosemary Soretti, Marie Saracino, Sharon Weir; Kneeling: Julie Bommarito, Cathy Maier, Jan Stevens, Yvonne Nowicki; Seated: Barbara Ternes, Kitty Kelly.

A Willing Staff A Glorious CROWN

Many books belong to sunshine and should be read out of school. One of these is the yearbook. While telling of school, it is enjoyed most out of it. Memories are immortalized and dreams are cherished. The work on the book itself is the grandest part of it.

Micheline Laquerre, editor-in-chief, contemplates the job before her by making a study of any books available.

One positive way of getting the girls to go for ads is to lock them up in the trunk of a car. Barb Bockhausen is quite cheerful about it, but Pat Painter is quite dubious. Jeannette Benoit and Marie Bono seem much too anxious.

Varsity:

Cagers Compete

Relaxation is a physical and moral responsibility. The toil-worn artisan, who taxes eye and brain and limb, should take the time to relax and exercise in wholesome activities.

Barb Maksymowicz and Kathy Jesky take a jump ball while Kathy Quinlan, Paulette Manos, Judy Pasquerella, and Ann Roberts get ready to get the ball as Miss Ivanovich coaches Junior Varsity practice.

Carol VanHerreweghe makes a free-shot while teammate, Ginger Poirier, keeps a member of the St. Ambrose Varsity team away from the ball.

A struggle for possession. Girls capture the ball, much to the glee of Carol Brownell, Kay Nowaske, and Pat Kniseley.

Mary Ann Wyllie soars towards the basket with the ball as Carol VanHereweghe comes in for the retrieve.

Carol Meerscheart makes a jump with a St. Ambrose player. Ann Burghardt (left) and Barb Tuschak (right) wait for the ball.

Junior Varsity:

Basketball Lures Reginities

We did not make the world but are a part of it. We shall find that it abounds with those who are too dull to be employed and those who strive to live in harmony with others. Team play helps us achieve the latter ideal.

Grace, speed, and alertness, are exemplified by Christine Gnebba in her high jump.

All towards one goal — the basket. Facing the camera are: Carol Maiorana, Carol Brownell, Rosemary Angott, and Barbara Staskowski.

Suspense fills the air as Regina and St. David's try for a jump ball.

Charlene Zajac guards Dominican forward with determination as Joan Koch looks on.

Cheerleaders urge the team on to victory: Mary Lou Brooks, Carol Cole, Marlene Kulas, Drema Marie Whitt, mascot, Diane Pilkey, Jean Johimsthal, and Leona Sosnowski.

Bowling Team

Exercise, sportsmanship, co-operation and relaxation create team spirit in the bowling team.

Pat Daneels demonstrates good bowling form to Cathy Maier and Barb Lenzion, officers of the team.

Bottom row: M. Staffileno, D. Piech, L. MacNamara, J. Bommarito, B. Chmura, Y. Nowicki, D. Cornish; Row 2: J. Stevens, P. Carra, P. Konefke, M. Paskiewicz, R. Soretti, M. Cornelissen; Row 3: S. Stevens, S. Steffen, J. Benoit, B. Bockhausen, Mrs. Krauss, C. Maier, B. Lenzion, B. Green, P. Daneels, C. Fovenesi, S. Weir; Row 4: J. Wroblewski, M. Wroblewski, K. Kelly, D. Mihelich, M. Wyllie, P. Malane, P. Decker, M. Feldmann.

Sr. M. Bernadette accepts the winning trophy from Mrs. Krauss for the school.

One of the bowling teams is composed of: Madeline Paskiewicz, Donna Mihelich, Carol Ivkov, Ginger Poirier, and Karen Candea.

Football Fans

By looking into physical causes our minds are opened and enlarged; and in this pursuit, whether we win or lose the game, the attempt is certainly of service. —Burke.

Regina girls cheer at Notre Dame games as if they were their own. Participation as football rooters, queens, or at the dance, highlights the season.

Attendants and their queen accompanied by their male escorts grace Notre Dame's football field: Grace Hanna, Mary Posch, Ann Marie Zamon, queen, and Mary Ann Albrecht.

Regina girls help to crowd the stands and root as loudly as they can for their favorite school.

To ride in one of the floats is a coveted desire of many a Regina girl. Grace Hanna is privileged to ride as attendant to the queen.

Activities culminate in a dance to celebrate the homecoming of the team.

Homecoming Queen Is Crowned

Notre Dame crowns Fifth Annual Homecoming Queen! Radiant queen, Ann Marie Zamon, receives her crown from the hands of Notre Dame Alumnus, Jim Bennett. Michael Genette prepares the scepter.

Royalty receives the scepter! After receiving the attire of a queen — the crown, the cape, the scepter — Ann Marie Zamon is well-equipped to reign over the festivities of the evening.

Anxiously awaiting Fr. R. Boulanger's announcement, the candidates listen attentively to find out "who" will be Notre Dame's Homecoming Queen.

A queen honors a Queen! Presenting Mary with a bouquet of roses, Ann Marie Zamon shows her love and loyalty to our Queen and Mother.

"A good time was had by all." Whether dancing to the dreamy music of the Collegians or renewing gay memories with old friends, everyone enjoyed Notre Dame's Homecoming.

Floating on a cloud, Ann Marie Zamon dances with escort, Bob Multz.

Even a queen must take some time out from her "duties" for enjoyment.

Rings Symbolize Loyalty

The ring is a symbol of the amount of loyalty one feels to the school. It is not a figure of the joy which comes from without that is false, precarious, and short; like flowers that are sweet for a season but soon wither. The ring must be a reminder of the joys that come from within, like smelling the rose on the tree; it is more sweet and fair, it is lasting and immortal.

Our rings become sacramentals. Reverend W. Petron aids Reverend F. Frechette as he blesses the symbols of our loyalty to Regina.

No — it's not graduation! It's Senior Ring Night. Row after row, the proud seniors march up to the stage to receive their school rings.

"From ancient civilization to modern times the trend continues. Rings are as popular today as they were thousands of years ago," Very Rev. F. C. Frechette of Notre Dame gives enlightening highlights during his address as to their origin and use.

With rapt attention, dignified Seniors follow the impressive ceremony in solemn participation.

Solemn moment! Heads are bowed as Very Rev. F. C. Frechette officiates at the Benediction of the Most Holy Sacrament.

"Thank you," says Sharon Tomlinson as she accepts her ring from Very Rev. F. Frechette.

"How do you like it?" Marie Saracino proudly displays her ring to her impressed parents as they examine her new ring.

The beauty of their rings is reflected in the smiling faces of Micheline Laquerre, Pat Siebert, Fran Lucchese, Bev Szytk, Sally Kotas, Judy Slimko, and Valerie Naiman.

Harvest Holiday

The plump swain at evening bringing home an abundance of sunshine bound in sheaves. —Lowell.

Standing in close company with Eddie Casper's music-makers, Kay Nowaske and Barb Staskowski exchange a bouquet of white carnations.

Garlands of white carnations, representative of the class of '62, are presented in loving tribute to the Blessed Mother by Sue Schwenter, Junior Class secretary, and Pat Hergenroether.

Dancing amid autumn leaves and corn stalks, Pam Gravel, Vicki Andrews, and their escorts agree that Fall is one of the best seasons of the year for a dance.

Entertaining music — exciting moments — enchanting memories. A night of fun and frolic is shared at Regina's annual Harvest Holiday Dance sponsored by the Junior Class.

Pensive losers in the "Penny Princess" race give a last look at their campaign posters. Cheryl Basta, Christine Bennett, Kathleen Kretch, and Pat Hanley delighted in the excitement of the competition.

Kathy Quinlan joins the ranks of Regina's Penny Princesses! The pretty, popular Penny Princess presents a fragrant bouquet of roses to Mary, our Queen.

Blue Valentine Dance

Love is not an illusion, an impulse, a weakness, or an accident; it is a great mystery and a great necessity, lying at the foundation of human existence, morality, and happiness — mysterious, universal, inevitable. —Martineau.

The sweet strains of Larry Egan's orchestra provide a dreamy atmosphere for celebrating Valentine's Day. The Blue Valentine Dance is a welcome affair as the last dance before Lent.

Mary Clare Limbert, Carol Henn, and their escorts hover near the Madonna at the dance.

Christmas Pageant

He walked in Judea nineteen hundred years ago; his sphere melody, flowing in wild native tones, took captive the ravished souls of men, and, being of a truth sphere melody, still flows and sounds, though now with thousand-fold accompaniments and rich symphonies, through all our hearts, and modulates and divinely leads them. —Carlyle.

Nancy Fasanga, as Christmas Bride, cuddles the Christ child and croons a lullaby.

Seniors give homage to their King

Magi and shepherds adore the Child Christ.

The Advent Wreath, important in setting the tone of expectation for Christmas, is lighted by Phyllis Herbertson while Stephanie Piazza recites a prayer.

Sparkle and Glitter at the Christmas Ball

The heart is like a musical instrument of many strings, all the chords of which require putting in harmony. —Saadi.

The Christmas Ball draws an immense crowd of formally clad couples creating an atmosphere of the socially elite.

Royalty Reigns with Charm

Every individual nature has its own beauty. One is struck with the riches of nature, when he hears so many new tones, all musical, sees in each person original manners which have a proper and peculiar charm, and reads new expression of face. Nature has laid for each the foundations of a divine building, if the soul will build thereon. —Emerson.

Maria, Regina, reigns at all functions of the school and extends her protection over all the girls who invoke her in their needs. Mary Beth Parker implores her intercession.

Kathy Howell as model Regina girl is congratulated and awarded at an assembly by Sister Mary Bernadette, principal.

With a motherly instinct and tender love, Nancy Fasanga, as Christmas Bride, lovingly fondles the Christ Child.

In the midst of festivities every girl selected for an honor has remembered her heavenly Queen. Ann Marie Zamon places a bouquet at her feet.

Sharing in her regal splendor as Homecoming Queen of Notre Dame's football season, is Ann Marie Zamon's escort, Bob Multz.

Prom in Hawaiian Mood

Happiness is that single and glorious thing which is the very light and sun of the whole animated universe; and where she is not, it were better that nothing should be. Without her, wisdom is but a shadow and virtue a name; she is their sovereign mistress. —Colton.

The Juniors and Seniors bring the year to a close with their prom. Bidding "Aloha-Oe" (Fond Farewell) to another school year, they dance to the music of Bob Du Rant and his orchestra.

Formal gowns and white dinner jackets combined to make everyone feel extra special. Homework and tests easily forgotten, everyone dances under the soft oriental lights.

The animation of youth overflows spontaneously in harmonious movements to the music of Larry Egan and his orchestra at the Alumni Dance following the Prom.

Running water like living fountains draws youth to its side: Barbara Ternes, Julie Bommarito, and Saranne Oberman with their escorts.

Center of interest usually encompasses the Blessed Mother. Dancers delight in the simulated beating of drums in her honor by a native.

National Honor Students Recognized

Honor is but the reflection of a man's own notions shining bright in the face of all about him, and from thence rebounding upon himself. —Smith.

Graduates Are Feted and Feasted

Rev. Wm. Petron, Rev. Donald Devine, Barbara Staskowski, Karen Christie, Sue Schwenter, Patricia Hergenroether and Rev. John Raymo hold places of honor at the Banquet.

Carol Henn, outgoing class president, amuses Mr. Robert McDonald and his wife with her anecdotes while Rev. Petron and Rev. Devine enjoy the conversation and food.

Yet I argue not against Heaven's hand nor will, nor bate a jot of heart or hope, but still bear up and steer right onward. —Milton.

"Introibo ad altare Dei . . ." "I go unto the altar of God . . ." as he does daily so the priest of God, Very Rev. F. C. Frechette, S.M., with renewed devotion during the Baccalaureate Mass begs God to take the graduates under His special protection.

Baccalaureate Mass

"The Lord be with you . . ." in whatever you undertake. As He did in a Catholic environment, so may He walk with you wherever you may be, dear graduates.

Standing with brave endeavor to face the world, the girls are fortified once again with the blessings of the Baccalaureate Mass which will serve them in good stead.

As he lifts the 'chalice of salvation' Very Rev. F. C. Frechette intercedes with God in a special way for youth, with which he has long been associated and thus, as an educator, has a deep concern.

Graduation:

Commencement Towards an Unknown

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well, and doing well whatever you do without a thought of fame. If it comes at all it will come because it is deserved, not because it is sought after. —Longfellow.

Rev. Joseph G. Schuler, pastor of Guardian Angel parish, presents Mary Posch with her long-awaited diploma. Barbara Staskowski aids Father Schuler in the distribution of diplomas. Rt. Rev. Joseph Breitenbeck, pastor of Assumption Grotto, seated, was the speaker.

The procession! The Notre Dame High School band plays the Papal march for incoming graduates and Junior ushers.

Rose Marie Acierno, Salutatorian

Row after row of white-robed Seniors go forward to receive their diplomas. Although for some it is the end of homework and exams, for all it is the beginning of a new life — life in an adult world.

Sophomores stage a Gary Moore show in farewell to the Seniors: A. Paszek, B. Weigand, K. Ryan, N. St. Amand, N. Reeber, M. Savage, J. Fasanga, S. Wagner, D. Killenberg, S. Solosky, E. Czuczko, S. Zink, F. Poirier, H. Oleszko, J. Marti, J. Husted, and S. Goodman.

Aloha Oe - Fond Farewell

Little Sisters, Freshmen, observe the assembly with varied expressions.

Freshmen sponsor a record-hop with their big sisters, the Seniors, sing their school song and say farewell.

Aloha, Oe! In a Hawaiian setting, the Virgin Mother hovers over her Regina subjects. Juniors have their way of saying goodbye at the Junior-Senior Prom.

While a man is stringing a harp, he tries the strings, not for music, but for construction. When it is finished, it shall be played for melodies. God is fashioning the human heart for future joy. He only sounds a string here and there to see how far his work has progressed. —Beecher.

A few of the Seniors have made up their minds, or rather God had given these a special call to the religious life. Examining the contents of a suitcase are Kathleen Steiner, Patricia Malane, Beverly White, Josephine Galasso, and Carol Brusiee.

The goals for which we strive are the same and that is wherein unity in practice is contained. The means may differ somewhat but the grand difficulty is to feel the reality of both worlds, so as to give each its due place in our thoughts and feelings, to keep our mind's eye and our heart's eye ever fixed on the land of promise, without looking away from the road along which we are to travel toward it.

Touring the building in anticipation of entering Regina are girls from neighboring parishes. Guides for the occasion are Barbara Ennis and Mary Jo Eger.

Action is Eloquence

The activity of the young is like that of rail cars in motion, — they tear along with noise and turmoil, and leave peace behind them. Serenity is unknown to the young for they have a job to do. The quietest nooks invaded by them ring, after they leave, with reverberations of their vivacity.

Passing of time is not their only problem as Freshmen satisfy their desire for activity by making octopi of yarn for mission children, thus donating their talents towards something useful. Seen here are: C. Humphrey, C. Czarnecki, M. Campbell, G. Jeziorowski, and C. Gnebba.

The joy of giving is exemplified when students fill baskets of grocery for the needy. Decorating the basket are: Jean Giammaria, Christine Bennett, and Christine Gnebba.

We are born for a higher destiny than that of earth; there is a realm where the rainbow never fades, where the stars will be spread before us like islands that slumber on the ocean, — and where beings that pass before us like shadows will stay in our presence forever. — B. To pass Monday morning inspection, Sharon Oswald and Kathy O'Connor are busily cleaning their shoes. Sticking two fingers through a tear in her blazer, Sue Pantera draws amusement from Marlene Oestman and Carolyn Pankiewicz. "Here it is!" greets Edna Orzel as she hands Elaine Olstyn her mended blazer.

Seniors bid a tearful farewell in chapel as they offer flowers after graduation.

THE CORNER

A milestone's about to happen. Your graduation marks a decisive period in your life. Behind is an important, formative period of learning. And ahead?

The course is yours to choose, whether it be more study or the start of a career. We at Michigan Consolidated Gas Company join friends and family in wishing you well in your new adventures . . . hoping that your new-worlds-to-conquer outlook never dims.

"There's A Girl I'd Like To Know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled mid-morning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

going to live better than ever before ... electrically!

You, today's graduate, are entering an exciting new era where you will live better than any generation has ever lived before—the era of all-electric living.

Your all-electric home for example, thanks to time-saving electric equipment and appliances, will allow you and your family more time to enjoy life together.

Your job will be smoother too. Electricity, in everything from office equipment to heavy machinery, will lighten your work—make it more enjoyable.

If you decide on further education, your field of study may well be related to electricity. Perhaps someday, as a scientist or technician, you will even lend your knowledge to further mold the all-electric world of tomorrow.

But wherever the future finds you, whatever your place in life, electricity will be there to help you live better than ever before—live better electrically.

NEED MONEY FOR COLLEGE?

As a loan to your parent, guardian or sponsor, National Bank of Detroit will advance money to the accredited college of your choice. The loan covers all your major expenses for up to four years, including tuition, room, board, books—even lab fees. Arrangements can also be made for special expenses. And your entire loan can be protected by life insurance. For details call WO 5-6000 and ask for "College Plan."

Class of

Editors of the Crown, 1961 bid all farewell. Each had done her part to make this a cherished memory book for you. From the left are: Barbara Ternes, Senior section editor; Ann Marie Zamon, literary editor; Michelene Laquerre, editor-in-chief; Claudia Berari, lay-out editor; and Charlene Grismer, business manager.
